EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- Global risk appetite weakened as AI-related technology stocks led declines, with the Nasdaq ▼4.48% and the S&P 500 ▼1.95% to 7,659.44, while Brent climbed ▲4.65% to $109.59/bbl amid renewed Middle East supply attacks.
- The NGX ASI fell ▼0.33% to 247,539.73, a third straight weekly decline that trimmed YTD to ▲59.07%, on 1.66bn shares worth ₦98.09bn, while Ghana's GSE Composite led Africa at ▲2.40%.
- Oil & Gas led at ▲3.13% on Aradel's ▲8.93%, Banking fell ▼3.15% led by Zenith ▼6.46% and GTCO ▼5.10% ahead of Q3 results, and Livestock Feeds ▲44.49% topped gainers while UPDC REIT ▼11.88% led decliners.
- September headline inflation eased to 14.63% from 15.39%, an ex post real policy rate of 8.37 percentage points at a 23.00% MPR, while gross reserves reached $58.81bn and the parallel premium narrowed to ₦47.99/$.
- Q3 board meetings begin with BUA Cement on 20 Oct and Dangote Cement on 29 Oct, while the ₦2.15tn Dangote refinery offer, extended to 27 Oct, keeps liquidity the key risk after turnover fell ▼38.0%.

Market Outlook — Coming Week

- Liquidity thinned sharply. Volume fell ▼38.9% to 1.66bn shares, value traded ▼38.0% to ₦98.09bn and deals ▼12.1% to 184,632, so average deal size (value ÷ deals) fell ▼29.5% to about ₦531k from ₦754k, while value per share traded edged up ▲1.4% to about ₦59. The ₦2.15tn Dangote refinery offer now closes on 27 Oct rather than 13 Oct, extending its call on domestic liquidity by two weeks. A ₦2.41tn OMO repayment on 13 Oct lifted SDF placements to ₦6.08tn with no new OMO sales, but the extent to which that liquidity reaches equities is uncertain. The offer's close could reduce competing demand for capital, although the allotment and refund timetable will govern the timing of any redeployment, and the 364-day NTB at 15.90% remains an alternative.
- Breadth improved, but larger constituents weighed on the index. Advancers rose to 50 from 24 and decliners fell to 30 from 54, lifting the advance/decline ratio to 1.67x from 0.44x, while the ASI fell ▼0.33%. On official NGX capitalisations, the ten watch list stocks lost ₦1.23tn (▼1.19%), more than twice the ₦0.54tn shed by the whole market, and the four banks accounted for ₦0.91tn of that. Banking is now ▼6.62% MTD. The ASI closed 2.0% below its 52 week closing high of 252,635.11 (28 Sep), so the pullback remains shallow.
- The valuation gap is wide, though the weekly change cannot be measured on a consistent basis. At 18.93x excluding constituents above 100x, the covered Main Board offers a 5.28% earnings yield against an FGN 10Y yield of 16.94%, a gap of 11.66pp. Last week's 10.72pp used a 15.95% yield dated 30 Sep and a 9 Oct observation is not available, so the two gaps are not directly comparable. On equal weighted averages, Banking trades at 21.68x, or 17.0x on an alternative calculation excluding First HoldCo at 59.3x (8 of 9 constituents), against 59.09x for Consumer Goods. Access and Fidelity still hold H1 extensions with no date.

- Three risks could extend the pullback: earnings, global rates and oil.
  - Earnings: BUA Cement (20 Oct), Guinness Nigeria (21 Oct), and Dangote Cement and BUA Foods (29 Oct) have scheduled board meetings to consider Q3 accounts; release timing is not confirmed. Dangote Cement's 1,696x P/E print means trailing earnings offer little valuation anchor for the sector's 83.97% YTD run.
  - Global rates: Hot US CPI and PPI pushed Fed hike bets out to December, with the US 10Y at 5.09% ahead of the 27 to 28 Oct Fed meeting. A renewed AI selloff could weigh on frontier risk appetite.
  - Oil and inflation: Brent at $109.59 supports reserves and Oil & Gas earnings but keeps fuel costs elevated. September CPI of 14.63% came in well below the 15.40% Cordros had forecast, which, if sustained in October data, could support the case for easing at the 23 to 24 Nov MPC.

Global Markets Commentary

- ▼ AI-related technology stocks led the week's decline. The Nasdaq fell 4.48% WoW and the S&P 500 ▼1.95% to 7,659.44 as rate-sensitive AI names sold off after hotter US inflation data. Asian markets with heavy semiconductor weightings fell furthest: KOSPI ▼14.46% WoW, which Reuters reported on Friday as on course for its steepest weekly loss since October 2008, and Nikkei 225 ▼5.37%.
- Inflation surprised again. September CPI and PPI both printed hot, reviving October hike bets. Fed officials signalled no urgency, pushing pricing to December. The 10Y Treasury yield eased to 5.09% from 5.21% on Tuesday, and the dollar index slipped to 101.79.
- Middle East escalation kept energy bid. Brent ▲3.46% on Friday to $109.59/bbl and WTI cleared $100 at $101.52, after Houthi strikes on Saudi targets and renewed Hormuz tanker attacks. Gold held at $4,164.64/oz, capped by Fed hike risk.
- The STOXX 600 rose ▲2.09% WoW to 644.74 (▲1.55% MoM), the only gain among the markets shown; the weekly returns alone do not establish why Europe diverged. China lagged. The Shanghai Comp. is ▼2.56% WoW and ▼7.63% YTD, and sits 1.1% above its 52 week low of 3,674.82.

FX tables are quoted on the currency-pair convention: a negative figure denotes a fall in USD/NGN, that is, naira appreciation. Narrative commentary describes moves in the local currency, so a rise in the pair is reported as local currency weakness. USD returns are computed as (1 + local YTD return) ÷ (1 + YTD change in USD/local) − 1, using the pair returns shown.

Frontier Africa Commentary

- ▲ Ghana led and Kenya lagged. The GSE Composite ▲2.40% WoW to 14,395.00, lifting YTD gains to 64.10% (~53.5% in USD), while the NSE All Share ▼2.41% to 239.03.
- South Africa broke from the pack. The JSE All Share ▲2.22% WoW to 110,934.23 but remains the only market in the table down YTD (▼4.23%). NGX ASI ▼0.33% and EGX 30 ▼1.86% on the week, yet both hold strong YTD gains.
- ▼ Egypt carried the week's FX stress. USD/EGP rose 1.97% WoW to 53.40 as the pound weakened, taking the pair up 11.97% YTD and trimming the EGX 30's 27.81% YTD gain to ~14.1% in USD. USD/GHS fell 0.68% to 11.65 as the cedi firmed.
- Naira strength remains the regional macro anchor. The official rate was broadly flat at ₦1,332.01/$ (pair +0.09% WoW) and USD/NGN is 7.92% lower YTD, lifting the NGX ASI's 59.07% YTD return to ~72.8% in USD, the best in the region. Parallel premium: 3.6%.

Market Snapshot Commentary

- The NGX All-Share Index ▼0.33% WoW to 247,539.73, a third consecutive weekly loss after the prior week's ▼0.97%. Market capitalisation fell ₦535bn to ₦160.73tn, and the YTD return eased to 59.07% from 59.60%. The decline was concentrated in banking: the NGX Banking Index fell ▼3.15%, with Zenith Bank ▼6.46% and GTCO ▼5.10% among the week's ten largest decliners.
- Breadth improved even as the index slipped. Advancers rose to 50 from 24 and decliners fell to 30 from 54, lifting the advance/decline ratio to 1.67x from 0.44x; 66 stocks were unchanged. The ASI declined despite a positive advance/decline balance, which suggests that weakness in some larger constituents outweighed gains elsewhere; the breadth data alone do not identify the contribution from mid and small caps. Activity also thinned: volume ▼38.9% to 1.66bn shares, value traded ▼38.0% to ₦98.09bn and deals ▼12.1% to 184,632, taking average deal size (value ÷ deals) to about ₦531k from ₦754k. The data do not independently establish the extent of institutional participation.
- The ASI sits 2.0% below its 52 week closing high of 252,635.11, set on 28 Sep, and 75.2% above its 52 week closing low of 141,327.30. Last week's 254,067.42 was the 52 week intraday high (Investing.com range 141,020.95 to 254,067.42); this report now uses closing levels.

Market Snapshot Commentary

- Oil & Gas led and Banking lagged. The NGX Oil & Gas Index ▲3.13% WoW to 6,194.00, with most of the gain in Thursday's ▲2.64% session as Aradel Holdings ▲7.14% to ₦1,499.90; Brent at $109.59/bbl and a 131.96% YTD gain frame the sector's momentum.
- The NGX Banking Index ▼3.15% WoW to 2,532.47, the largest sector decline, led by large banks ahead of Q3 results; profit taking is a possible explanation, although price data alone do not establish the cause. Monday set the tone with Access Holdings ▼4.24% and Zenith Bank ▼4.23%, and Zenith ended the week ▼6.46%. Banking is now ▼6.62% MTD but still ▲67.07% YTD. Insurance (▼0.14% WoW) is the only equity sector in the displayed universe with a negative YTD return, at ▼9.23%.
- Watch Tier 1 bank Q3 filings: results that confirm margin strength could support a recovery in financials, though an MPR of 23.00% limits the scope for rerating.

Market Movers Commentary

- eTranzact ▲42.98% to ₦17.30 after Trademarks Global Concepts acquired a 56.18% controlling stake from Access Bank and other holders, announced on 13 Oct. Livestock Feeds ▲44.49% to ₦19.00 on at least ₦1.23bn traded, despite a FY2025 loss of 98.31k per share. UAC agreed on 30 Sep to sell its 73.29% stake to Sunbeth Treenuts and Sesame at ₦8.85 a share; the stock now trades at about 2.1x that price, so the deal terms alone do not explain the move. Aradel ▲8.93% to ₦1,499.90, the largest company among the top ten gainers.

Market Movers Commentary

- Large caps lagged. The ten names on the watch list averaged ▼2.13% WoW against the ASI's ▼0.33%, with every decline in banks and MTN; the other five closed unchanged, although each traded during the week (58,361 to 774,528 shares). Zenith Bank ▼6.46% to ₦126.00 led declines and has the lowest P/E on the list at 9.5x after a 98% YTD run. GTCO ▼5.10% to ₦124.80, a price return that includes about 0.8pp from its ₦1.00 ex dividend adjustment on 13 Oct. First HoldCo fell ▼3.93% and trades at 59.3x trailing earnings, against 9.5x to 17.6x for the other banks cited; the premium raises sensitivity to any earnings disappointment, although relative multiples alone do not establish the appropriate valuation.

NGX Large Cap: Official Market Capitalisation, YTD Performance and Sector

Market Movers Commentary

Airtel Africa held ₦23.68tn, unchanged at ₦6,300.00 for an eighth consecutive week, and remains the most capitalised stock on the NGX by a ₦5.68tn margin. Dangote Cement kept second place at ₦18.00tn, flat at ₦1,066.70, and MTN Nigeria ▼2.38% to ₦820.00 for ₦17.32tn, widening the gap to ₦0.68tn from ₦0.36tn. Capitalisations are the official NGX figures in the Current Equity P/E Ratios file of 16 Oct 2026; weekly changes compare them with the 9 Oct file.

- Telecoms (blue): Airtel Africa ₦23.68tn at ₦6,300.00 (▲178% YTD), unchanged on the week; MTN Nigeria ₦17.32tn at ₦820.00 (▼2.38% WoW, ▲60% YTD).
- Industrial (green): Dangote Cement ₦18.00tn at ₦1,066.70 (▲75% YTD, flat WoW), against an Industrial Goods Index at 0.00% WoW.
- Consumer goods (pink): BUA Foods ₦13.69tn at ₦760.60, unchanged for a ninth week and still the only large cap negative YTD at ▼5%. Nestlé ₦2.18tn at ₦2,750.00 (flat WoW, ▲40% YTD, 66.6x), against a Consumer Goods Index ▲0.09%.
- Oil and gas (amber): Seplat ₦9.60tn, flat at ₦16,000.10 (▲185% YTD, 75.2x), while the Oil & Gas Index rose ▲3.13%, led by Aradel.
- Banking (purple): First HoldCo ₦6.28tn at ₦138.00 (▼3.93% WoW, ▲183% YTD, 59.3x); Zenith ₦5.17tn at ₦126.00 (▼6.46%, 9.5x); GTCO ₦4.56tn at ₦124.80 (▼5.10% including the ₦1.00 ex dividend adjustment, 17.6x); Access ₦1.55tn at ₦28.50 (▼3.39%, 10.1x), against a Banking Index ▼3.15%.

Large caps fell more than the market, reversing last week's pattern. None of the ten rose, five were flat and five fell, against one riser and four decliners a week ago. Aggregate official capitalisation across the ten stood at ₦102.03tn, a fall of ₦1.23tn or ▼1.19% WoW, more than three times the ASI's ▼0.33%. The ten lost more than twice the ₦0.54tn shed by the whole market, so stocks outside the group added roughly ₦0.70tn on balance. Aradel's ▲8.93% accounts for an estimated ₦0.53tn of that, based on its official ₦6.52tn capitalisation and a prior close of ₦1,377.00, assuming an unchanged share count. Within the group, the four banks gave up ₦0.91tn, 74% of the loss, and MTN a further ₦0.32tn. Valuation dispersion widened slightly, First HoldCo at 59.3x against Zenith at 9.5x (6.3x apart, from 6.1x). Airtel Africa and Seplat again show the gap between index weight and investable liquidity: ₦23.68tn and ₦9.60tn of capitalisation with no price change, while Access Holdings led weekly volume on ₦1.55tn of capitalisation.

The naira eased 0.37% against sterling to ₦1,766.17 and 0.11% against the euro to ₦1,495.35, as both currencies gained on a softer dollar (DXY 101.79). USD/NGN remains 7.92% lower YTD.

With the MPR at 23.00%, held since the 350bps cut on 22 Sep, the ex post real policy rate (MPR less headline inflation) stands at +8.37pp. The curve has not followed the easing. The FGN 10Y yield stands at 16.94%, 99bps above the 15.95% observed on 30 Sep (a 9 Oct observation is not available), and the 364-day NTB stop rate rose 5bps to 15.90% as the DMO allotted ₦220bn against ₦982bn of bids. The CBN conducted no OMO sales; a ₦2.41tn OMO repayment pushed SDF placements to ₦6.08tn.
- ▲ Brent rose 4.65% WoW to $109.59/bbl, the Brent futures settlement on 16 Oct, amid Middle East supply risk. Bonny Light's latest available print is $117.92 (30 Sep). ▲ Gross reserves rose $3.73bn to $58.81bn on 12 Oct from $55.08bn on 9 Oct, the highest level in 18 years according to coverage of CBN data; the data do not identify the source of the inflow, so its persistence is uncertain. ▼ Gold slipped 0.74% to $4,164.64/oz.

SECTION 8 | NIGERIA — MARKET METRICS & VALUATION

Valuation Metrics

| Metric | Current (16 Oct 2026) | Prior Week (9 Oct 2026) | Change |
|---|---|---|---|
| NGX Main Board weighted contribution ratio (NGX published; see note) | 41.70x | 41.39x | +0.31 |

| Covered Main Board cap weighted trailing P/E, excluding constituents above 100x | 18.93x † | 19.12x † | -0.19 |
| Covered share of Main Board capitalisation | ₦33.10tn of ₦94.43tn (35.1%) | ₦33.24tn of ₦93.95tn (35.4%) | -0.3pp |
| Banking Sector avg P/E (Main, Premium and Non-Interest boards) | 21.68x † | 22.09x † | -0.41 |
| Consumer Goods avg P/E (Main Board) | 59.09x | 59.64x | -0.55 |
| Oil & Gas avg P/E (Main and Premium boards) | 52.39x | 52.47x | -0.08 |
| Market Dividend Yield (avg), latest observation 14 Aug 2026 | 3.75% (carried forward from 14 Aug 2026) | 3.75% (carried forward from 14 Aug 2026) | N/A |

Source: NGX Current Equity P/E Ratios files of 16 Oct 2026 and 9 Oct 2026. Methodology note: the ratio NGX publishes as the Main Board Market Total (41.70 on 16 Oct 2026) is the sum, across constituents, of market capitalisation divided by total market capitalisation on all boards, multiplied by that constituent's P/E. On 16 Oct 2026 the implied denominator is approximately ₦165.07tn against a Main Board capitalisation of ₦94.43tn, and only ₦33.10tn of Main Board capitalisation carries a published P/E. The ₦165.07tn reconciles to the sum of every board in the file (Main ₦94.43tn, Premium ₦65.54tn, FGN bonds ₦3.70tn, mutual funds ₦0.64tn, Non-Interest ₦0.35tn, Growth ₦0.33tn, REITs ₦0.08tn), so the NGX denominator spans every board, not equities only. The published figure is therefore a coverage limited weighted contribution, not a cap weighted market P/E, and is retained here only for continuity with prior issues. Equinox recomputes a covered Main Board cap weighted trailing P/E as total covered capitalisation divided by total covered earnings, where earnings are derived as capitalisation divided by the published P/E. † Sterling Financial Holdings prints at 256.4x because NGX has not restated EPS for the 1 for 10 share reconstruction listed on 8 Oct; Equinox carries it at 25.6x (printed P/E divided by 10), consistent with the 25.8x used for 9 Oct. On the P/E as printed the three figures marked † would be 29.72x, 18.80x and 21.18x. Coverage on 16 Oct 2026 is 78 of 125 Main Board lines, unchanged from 9 Oct; 27 of the 78 print above 100x on the adjusted basis, also unchanged. Sector figures are equal weighted averages of P/E across constituents reporting usable data, excluding any constituent above 100x. Banking covers 9 of 11 bank and bank holdco lines across the Main, Premium and Non-Interest boards, excluding Wema at 781.9x and Jaiz at 268.2x; the fall is led by First HoldCo at 59.3x from 61.7x and GTCO at 17.6x from 18.5x. Consumer Goods covers 7 of 13 Main Board lines with a published P/E, the same count as on 9 Oct. Oil & Gas covers all 6 lines with a published P/E across the Main and Premium boards; the average includes Japaul Gold at 0.2x, without which it would be 62.8x. Aradel carries no published P/E, so its weekly move does not enter the average. Market Dividend Yield is unchanged from 14 Aug 2026 and is flagged as carried forward, not a fresh observation.

Valuation Commentary

- Banks carry the lowest multiples among the major sectors. The Banking equal weighted average of 21.68x sits well below Consumer Goods at 59.09x and Oil & Gas at 52.39x. First HoldCo at 59.3x, roughly 4x the other Tier 1 banks cited, lifts the average; on an alternative calculation excluding it, banks average 17.0x across 8 constituents, with Zenith at 9.5x, Access at 10.1x and GTCO at 17.6x. These are screening observations rather than valuation conclusions, since earnings quality, capital and impairment risk differ across banks. The covered Main Board P/E of 18.93x (excluding constituents above 100x) is capitalisation weighted while the sector figures are equal weighted, so comparisons between them are indicative rather than like for like. On that basis Nestlé at 66.6x and Seplat at 75.2x carry premiums of roughly 3x to the market measure. Dangote Cement's 1,696.1x is not meaningful, as it implies trailing EPS of about ₦0.63, and BUA Foods has no published P/E.
- Foreign purchases and sales both declined in August. Buying fell ▼36.4% to ₦26.47bn and selling ▼60.9% to ₦35.56bn, so the net outflow narrowed to ₦9.09bn from ₦49.44bn in July, primarily because sales fell more sharply than purchases. Foreign investors nevertheless remained net sellers, and their share of total turnover declined to 4.89% from 5.60% as total transactions fell ▼46.38% to ₦1.27tn. Domestic institutional transactions also fell, ▼60.39% to ₦654.61bn. The August figures predate the 21 Sep FTSE reclassification; September data will provide the first read on whether it changes the trend.

SECTION 9 | INVESTMENT THEME

THEME: Stock selection amid improving breadth and sector dispersion

MTD, Oil & Gas (-0.85%) and Industrial Goods (+0.03%) are ahead of the ASI (-1.46%), while Banking trails at -6.62% after a second consecutive weekly decline. |
| DRIVER | Oil & Gas reversed the prior week's 3.85% decline as Aradel rose 8.93% on ₦7.35bn of turnover, with Brent up 4.65% WoW to $109.59/bbl. Banking extended the prior week's 2.64% decline, led by large banks ahead of Q3 results: Zenith fell 6.46%, GTCO 5.10% (including its ₦1.00 ex dividend adjustment) and Access 3.39%. Industrial Goods was flat; BUA Cement's 20 Oct board meeting on its 9M accounts is an upcoming catalyst rather than a driver of last week's move. |
| IMPLICATION | The week offers three distinct setups. Oil & Gas is a momentum candidate, led by Aradel and Oando (13.8x P/E), conditional on gains holding on volume. Industrial Goods is an event candidate around BUA Cement's results, with Dangote Cement's board meeting following on 29 Oct; trailing P/Es in the sector are distorted by extreme prints. Banking is a conditional rebound candidate only: Zenith at 9.5x and GTCO at 17.6x screen low on trailing P/E, but a reversal needs confirmation on volume and results. Candidates will be ranked on momentum, relative strength, liquidity, catalyst and risk once 5 and 20 session returns are available. |
| RISK | The Oil & Gas move is concentrated. Aradel accounted for most of it and carries no published P/E, so a reversal in that name or a Brent pullback from $109.59 could undo the gains. Cement valuations offer limited support on trailing earnings, with Dangote Cement at 1,696x and Lafarge at 123.9x, and BUA Cement's closed period limits insider dealing until results are public. In Banking, a third weekly decline or further delays to the Access and Fidelity H1 filings would raise the risk that the downtrend persists. |

SECTION 10 | OUTLOOK — SECTORAL VIEWS & EVENTS TO WATCH

Sectoral Outlook — Coming Week

| Sector | View | Conviction | Rationale |
|---|---|---|---|
| Banking | N | M | Zenith (9.5x) and GTCO (17.6x) screen below the 18.93x covered Main Board P/E (different weighting bases), but the index is down 6.62% MTD after two weekly declines and Access and Fidelity H1 filings remain delayed. Q3 results or a volume-backed reversal would change the view. |
| Consumer Goods | N | L | CPI easing to 14.63% (core 12.95%) may ease input costs, but the 59.09x sector average and a 1.55% YTD return leave little margin for disappointment. Guinness's 21 Oct board meeting is the next test. |
| Oil & Gas | OW | M | Brent at $109.59/bbl (+4.65% WoW) and Aradel's 8.93% gain on ₦7.35bn of turnover support momentum; conviction is capped by a 131.96% YTD gain and dependence on one name. A Brent pullback would change the view. |
| Industrial Goods | N | M | BUA Cement's 20 Oct board meeting offers a near term catalyst, but Dangote Cement at 1,696x and Lafarge at 123.9x give limited support on trailing earnings after an 83.97% YTD run. Q3 results on 20 and 29 Oct would change the view. |
| Insurance | UW | M | The only equity sector in the displayed universe down YTD (-9.23%). Recapitalisation has raised share counts, with Guinea Insurance's issued shares up to 17.46bn from 7.94bn over two listings; the effect on value depends on issue terms. Completed recapitalisations would change the view. |
| Telco (MTN/Airtel) | N | L | MTN fell 2.38% to ₦820.00 with a non meaningful 81,073x P/E, Airtel Africa is unchanged at ₦6,300.00 for an eighth week, and Airtel Money opened 7.5% below its 196p offer. Restated MTN earnings would change the view. |

OW = Overweight (expect outperformance) · N = Neutral · UW = Underweight · H/M/L = High/Medium/Low conviction, reflecting the strength of the principal driver against the valuation or risk constraint; each rationale names the condition that would change the view.

▲ BULLISH FACTORS

- Disinflation is broadening: September CPI fell 76bps to 14.63% and core to 12.95%, leaving the 23.00% MPR at a +8.37pp ex post real rate. That could create room for further easing at the 23 to 24 Nov MPC, subject to October data.
- Reported external buffers are at an 18 year high: gross reserves rose $3.73bn to $58.81bn on 12 Oct, although the source and persistence of the inflow are unknown. USD/NGN is 7.92% lower YTD, lifting the ASI's USD return to about 72.8%.
- Breadth is improving beneath the index: advancers rose to 50 from 24 and the A/D ratio reached 1.67x from 0.44x, even as the ASI fell 0.33%. An index

▼ BEARISH RISKS

- Fixed income competition is rising: the 364-day NTB stop rate rose 5bps to 15.90% and the FGN 10Y yield is 16.94%, 99bps above its 30 Sep level, despite the 350bps MPR cut.
- Liquidity is thinning: value traded fell 38.0% to ₦98.09bn, deals 12.1% and average deal size 29.5%. The Dangote refinery IPO (about ₦2.15tn) competes for capital until it closes on 27 Oct.
- Valuations are stretched on the unfiltered measure: the covered Main Board P/E is 29.24x across all 78 covered lines, 27 of which print above 100x (18.93x excluding them). Banking, the largest liquidity pool, is down 6.62% MTD into Q3 results.

Events to Watch — Next Week

| Date | Event Type | Details & Why It Matters |
| 20 Oct 2026 | BUA Cement board meeting on 9M 2026 unaudited accounts (confirmed by NGX notice of 12 Oct) | Release timing not confirmed; accounts may be published at or after the meeting. A first cement earnings read for Industrial Goods ahead of Dangote Cement on 29 Oct. |
| 27 Oct 2026 | Dangote refinery IPO offer closes (extended from 13 Oct; confirmed) | Could reduce competing demand for capital; the allotment basis is due to the SEC by 10 Nov (indicative), so any redeployment of refunds depends on that timetable. |
| 29 Oct 2026 | Dangote Cement and BUA Foods board meetings on 9M 2026 accounts (scheduled per NGX notices) | Two of the five largest NGX names; release timing not confirmed. Results will test the 1,696x P/E print and BUA Foods' -5% YTD. |
