Report Date	Coverage Period	Prepared By	Edition
02 November 2026	26 Oct – 30 Oct 2026	Equinox Research	Vol. 1 No. 18

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- Concerns over AI investment returns, after weak results from Alphabet, Intel and Amazon, sent the S&P 500 ▼1.82% on Friday and ▼0.57% WoW to 7,580.07, while Brent settled ▲0.52% WoW at $117.75.
- The NGX ASI rose ▲2.86% to a record 254,299.49, extending its YTD gain to ▲63.42%, as Nigeria outperformed African peers including Egypt's EGX 30 (▼2.85%) and South Africa's JSE (▼0.37%).
- Industrial Goods led sectors at ▲14.58% as Dangote Cement surged ▲27.81% to ₦1,420 on 41.5% PBT growth, while Banking fell ▼3.42% with First HoldCo dropping ▼17.31% to ₦119.15.
- The naira firmed ▲1.16% WoW to ₦1,346.26/$ on the CBN's NFEM rate, reserves held at $55.26bn, an 18 year high, and September CPI of 14.63% remains 837bp below the 23.00% MPR.
- The rally remains concentrated, with Dangote Cement's ₦5.21tn gain exceeding the market's entire ₦4.60tn rise, so broader earnings participation matters as the refinery IPO allotment and 23 Nov MPC approach.

Market Outlook — Coming Week

- The rally reached a record, but it now needs broader participation to hold.
  - Breadth: the advance/decline ratio improved to 0.69x from 0.36x, yet decliners still led advancers 48 to 33, and the Float Adjusted Index fell ▼1.37% while the ASI rose ▲2.86%.
  - Concentration: First HoldCo, GTCO and UBA accounted for 85.36% of the week's ₦637.83bn turnover, and the ASI closed at its 52 week high of 254,299.49, so a reversal in the few stocks that drove the gain would land on a market with little underlying support.
- Domestic liquidity remains elevated, although the Dangote Refinery IPO temporarily ties up investor funds.
  - NTB auction: the DMO rejected ₦1.84tn of bids on 28 Oct and cut the 364 day stop rate to 15.80% from 15.90%, leaving unplaced cash in the system.
  - Dangote refinery offer: returns are due to be collated on 3 Nov and the basis of allotment is scheduled for filing with the SEC on 10 Nov. The extent of refunds following allotment will determine how much cash returns to the secondary market.
  - Activity: value traded rose ▲475.88% to ₦637.83bn and volume ▲276.43% to 7.62bn shares on ▲10.99% more deals, but First HoldCo, GTCO and UBA made up 85.36% of value; the rest of the market traded ₦93.39bn.

- Earnings now have to justify the gains against a wide gap to bond yields.
  - Earnings yield spread: at 18.78x, the covered Main Board universe excluding constituents above 100x carries a 5.32% earnings yield, 11.59pp below the 16.91% FGN 10Y yield and unchanged on the week. Earnings yield is not a cash return, since earnings are retained or distributed, whereas the bond yield is contractual income subject to sovereign risk.
  - Banks: nine month PAT fell at GTCO (▼12.16%) and Zenith (▼11.6%) on higher tax and funding costs. Upcoming results from Access, UBA and Fidelity will help determine whether low bank valuations reflect an attractive entry point or concerns about the sustainability of earnings.
- External risks centre on oil, FX and global rates.
  - Oil and FX: Brent settled at $117.75 after a tanker attack in the Strait of Hormuz on 30 Oct. Higher oil would support FX inflows but add to inflation risk ahead of the 23 and 24 Nov MPC. The official to parallel spread is ₦38.74 (2.88%).
  - Global rates: CME FedWatch priced an 87.4% chance of a December Fed hike on 28 Oct, and the Nasdaq's ▼2.86% drop on 30 Oct leaves foreign investors cautious after a ₦6.10bn net FPI equity outflow in September.
  - Calendar: Stanbic IBTC's scrip election deadline is 6 Nov; Seplat and Berger Paints dividends qualify on 12 Nov.

Global Markets Commentary

- Concerns over AI investment returns weighed on technology stocks. Disappointing results from Alphabet (▼12.64% on Thursday), Intel and Amazon drove the S&P 500 ▼1.82% on Friday and ▼0.57% WoW to 7,580.07; the Nasdaq fell ▼2.0% WoW.
- STOXX 600 was the only index ▲ on both WoW (▲1.73%) and MoM (▲1.87%) as the ECB held. Asia split: KOSPI ▲3.25% WoW but ▼16.19% MoM; Nikkei ▲0.95% WoW; Shanghai ▼2.48% WoW to 3,599.02, 0.7% above its 52 week low.
- The Fed held rates at 3.75% to 4.00% on 28 Oct in a 10 to 2 vote, and futures priced an 87.4% chance of a December hike, up from 78.3% a day earlier (CME FedWatch). Equity stress drove a haven bid, with the 10 year Treasury yield easing to 4.92% on Friday from 4.98% on Monday.
- Oil and gold diverged. Brent settled ▲0.52% WoW at $117.75, including a 2.5% gain on Friday after a tanker attack in the Strait of Hormuz. Gold fell ▼2.96% WoW to $3,875.37 as equity liquidation and rate hike pricing outweighed haven demand.

FX tables are quoted on the currency-pair convention: a negative figure denotes a fall in USD/NGN, that is, naira appreciation. Narrative commentary describes moves in the local currency, so a rise in the pair is reported as local currency weakness. USD returns are computed as (1 + local YTD return) ÷ (1 + YTD change in USD/local) − 1, using the pair returns shown.

Frontier Africa Commentary

- Nigeria led the region, with the NGX ASI ▲2.86% WoW to 254,299.49 on a month end rally. The index gained 3.81% from 22 October as Dangote Cement surged 40.6% after 9M PBT rose 41.5% to ₦1.47tn.
- Egypt was the weakest market, with the EGX 30 ▼2.85% WoW and ▼4.43% over 1M, and the pound's ▼1.21% WoW fall compounding dollar losses. South Africa's JSE (▼0.37% WoW) remains the only market down YTD, at ▼7.09%.
- Currencies were mixed against the dollar. The naira firmed ▲1.16% WoW to ₦1,346.26/$ on the CBN's NFEM rate, with the parallel rate at ₦1,385 (2.88% premium). The shilling also firmed ▲0.77%, while the rand fell ▼0.70%, the pound ▼1.21% and the cedi ▼0.26%.
- FX translation is widening the dollar return gap. On a USD basis, the NGX is ▲75.6% YTD, helped by a 6.93% YTD fall in USD/NGN, and the GSE is ▲52.2%. EGX 30 gains shrink to ▲3.3%, and the JSE falls ▼8.2%.

Market Snapshot Commentary

- The NGX ASI ▲2.86% WoW to 254,299.49, adding 7,077.22 points and reversing the prior week's ▼0.13%. Market capitalisation rose ₦4.60tn to ₦165.11tn, and the YTD return widened to ▲63.42% from ▲58.87%. Dangote Cement drove the advance, rising 40.6% between 22 and 30 October after nine month profit before tax increased 41.5% to ₦1.47tn. Banking stocks offered no support, with the NGX Banking Index ▼10.42% MoM.
- Activity surged, but turnover was concentrated in three bank stocks. Value traded rose ▲475.88% WoW to ₦637.83bn and volume ▲276.43% to 7.62bn shares, while deals rose ▲10.99% to 192,138. First HoldCo, GTCO and UBA accounted for 6.10bn shares worth ₦544.44bn, or 85.36% of value; the rest of the market traded 1.52bn shares worth ₦93.39bn. The advance/decline ratio improved to 0.69x from 0.36x, although decliners continued to outnumber advancers, 48 to 33. The improvement indicates reduced selling pressure, but participation remains insufficient to characterise the rally as broad based.
- The ASI closed at its 52 week high of 254,299.49, 79.94% above its 52 week closing low of 141,327.30, so the index enters November with no overhead resistance from the past year. All 146 listed equities were counted in breadth in both weeks.

Insurance extended its losses, ▼2.13% WoW and ▼13.64% YTD.
- Next week, watch whether nine month earnings and dividend declarations draw flows back into banks or extend the rotation into industrial and consumer large caps.

- First HoldCo ▼17.31% to ₦119.15, including a 10.00% limit fall on Wednesday after 4.87bn shares changed hands on Tuesday. The unusually large volume warrants investigation before drawing conclusions about investor positioning.

NGX Large Cap: Official Market Capitalisation, YTD Performance and Sector

Market Movers Commentary

Dangote Cement overtook Airtel Africa as the most capitalised stock on the NGX, ending Airtel's run at the top. Dangote Cement rose ▲27.81% to ₦1,420.00, lifting its capitalisation ₦5.21tn to ₦23.96tn, now ₦0.28tn ahead of Airtel Africa at ₦23.68tn. Airtel held at ₦6,300.00 for a tenth consecutive week. MTN Nigeria rose ▲3.03% to ₦850.00 for ₦17.85tn. Capitalisations apply 30 Oct closes to the official share counts in the NGX Current Equity P/E Ratios file of 27 Oct 2026.

- Telecoms (blue): Airtel Africa ₦23.68tn at ₦6,300.00 (▲178% YTD), unchanged on the week. MTN Nigeria ₦17.85tn at ₦850.00 (▲3.03% WoW, ▲65% YTD), with the whole gain coming in Friday's session.
- Industrial (green): Dangote Cement ₦23.96tn at ₦1,420.00 (▲27.81% WoW, ▲133% YTD), after a 10.00% limit move on Monday and ▲9.80% on Tuesday, following a 41.5% rise in nine month profit before tax to ₦1.47tn. Industrial Goods Index ▲14.58%.
- Consumer goods (pink): BUA Foods ₦13.69tn at ₦760.60, unchanged for an eleventh week and still the only large cap negative YTD at ▼5%. Nestlé ₦2.18tn at ₦2,750.00 (flat WoW, ▲40% YTD, 66.6x). Consumer Goods Index ▼0.02%.
- Oil and gas (amber): Seplat ₦9.60tn, flat at ₦16,000.10 (▲185% YTD, 75.2x). Oil & Gas Index ▲0.82%.
- Banking (purple): Index ▼3.42%.
  - First HoldCo ₦5.42tn at ₦119.15 (▼17.31% WoW, ▲144% YTD, 51.2x).
  - Zenith ₦4.89tn at ₦119.00 (▼1.57%, or ▼0.34% against the ex dividend adjusted ₦119.40, 8.9x).
  - GTCO ₦4.42tn at ₦120.90 (▼0.90%, 17.0x).
  - Access ₦1.56tn at ₦28.60 (▲7.92%, 10.2x).

Large caps captured the entire market gain. Three of the ten rose, four were flat and three fell, against two risers and three decliners a week ago. Aggregate capitalisation across the ten rose ₦4.60tn, or ▲4.48% WoW, to ₦107.23tn. The whole market rose ₦4.60tn and the ASI ▲2.86%, so the remaining listed equities were flat in aggregate.

Dangote Cement's ₦5.21tn gain exceeded the group's entire net rise. The four banks lost ₦1.14tn net, almost all of it from First HoldCo's ₦1.13tn fall. Access's ₦0.11tn gain offset part of the loss.

Valuation dispersion narrowed sharply. First HoldCo at 51.2x against Zenith at 8.9x puts them 5.7 times apart, down from 6.8 times, entirely because of First HoldCo's price fall.

Airtel Africa and Seplat again show the gap between index weight and investable liquidity. They carry ₦23.68tn and ₦9.60tn of capitalisation with no price change, and Airtel traded only 4,333 shares from Monday to Thursday. First HoldCo, by contrast, turned over 4.87bn shares on Tuesday alone.

Macro Commentary

- The naira firmed ▲1.16% WoW to ₦1,346.26/$ on the CBN's NFEM rate, from ₦1,361.84 on 23 Oct. The parallel rate closed at ₦1,385, leaving a ₦38.74 (2.88%) spread. Cross rates confirm a firmer naira: GBP/NGN fell ▼0.65% to ₦1,801.57 and EUR/NGN ▼0.81% to ₦1,500.68.
- Policy remains on an easing path. The MPR stands at 23.00% after September's 350 bp cut, the largest since 2006. September CPI eased to 14.63% from 15.39%, so the real policy rate is 8.37 percentage points. The DMO's 28 Oct bill auction allotted only ₦71.16bn of ₦800bn offered, rejected ₦1.84tn of bids and cut the 364 day stop rate, a discount rate, to 15.80% from 15.90%. The FGN 10 year yield was little changed at 16.91% on 29 Oct against 16.90% a week earlier, about 93 bp higher than a month ago.
- Brent settled ▲0.52% WoW at $117.75/bbl, including a 2.5% gain on Friday after a tanker attack in the Strait of Hormuz. Bonny Light traded near $115/bbl on 24 Oct, the latest available print. Gross reserves stood at $55.26bn on 29 Oct, though a $7m daily dip ended about two months of gains. Gold fell ▼2.96% WoW to $3,875.37/oz as equities sold off.
- Events to watch next week: the Stanbic IBTC Nigeria PMI (2 Nov), the Dangote Petroleum IPO returns collation (3 Nov) and the Stanbic IBTC scrip election deadline (6 Nov).

SECTION 8 | NIGERIA — MARKET METRICS & VALUATION

Valuation Metrics

NGX Main Board weighted contribution ratio (NGX published; see note)	38.65x	41.47x	-2.82

Source: NGX Current Equity P/E Ratios files of 27 Oct 2026 and 23 Oct 2026. Methodology note: the ratio NGX publishes as the Main Board Market Total (38.65 on 27 Oct 2026) is the sum, across constituents, of market capitalisation divided by total market capitalisation on all boards, multiplied by that constituent's P/E. On 27 Oct 2026 the implied denominator is approximately ₦169.28tn against a Main Board capitalisation of ₦93.63tn, and only ₦32.78tn of Main Board capitalisation carries a published P/E. The ₦169.28tn reconciles to the sum of every board in the file (Main ₦93.63tn, Premium ₦70.53tn, FGN bonds ₦3.73tn, mutual funds ₦0.64tn, Non-Interest ₦0.35tn, Growth ₦0.33tn, REITs ₦0.08tn); recomputing the ratio from the line items gives 38.66. The published figure is therefore a coverage limited weighted contribution, not a cap weighted market P/E, and is retained here only for continuity with prior issues. Its 2.82 point fall is partly mechanical: the denominator rose ₦4.42tn, mainly on Premium Board gains led by Dangote Cement, which accounts for about 1.08 points; the rest reflects lower capitalisation on high multiple Main Board names, including Presco (694.1x), which fell 10.00% on 27 Oct. Equinox recomputes a covered Main Board cap weighted trailing P/E as total covered capitalisation divided by total covered earnings, where earnings are derived as capitalisation divided by the published P/E. † Sterling Financial Holdings prints at 254.7x because NGX has not restated EPS for the 1 for 10 share reconstruction listed on 8 Oct; Equinox carries it at 25.5x (printed P/E divided by 10), consistent with prior weeks. On the P/E as printed the three figures marked † would be 29.43x, 18.65x and 21.93x. Coverage on 27 Oct 2026 is 78 of 125 Main Board lines, unchanged from 23 Oct; 27 of the 78 print above 100x on the adjusted basis, also unchanged. Sector figures are equal weighted averages of P/E across constituents reporting usable data, excluding any constituent above 100x. Banking covers 9 of 11 bank and bank holdco lines across the Main, Premium and Non-Interest boards, excluding Wema at 784.4x and Jaiz at 268.2x; the rise is led by First HoldCo at 66.6x from 61.9x as its price rose to ₦155.00, with Access at 10.1x from 9.4x and GTCO at 17.4x from 17.2x, partly offset by UBA at 9.9x and Zenith at 9.1x. Consumer Goods covers 7 of 13 Main Board lines with a published P/E, the same count as on 23 Oct. Oil & Gas covers all 6 lines with a published P/E across the Main and Premium boards; the average includes Japaul Gold at 0.2x, without which it would be 62.3x. Aradel carries no published P/E, so its weekly move does not enter the average. Market Dividend Yield is unchanged from 14 Aug 2026 and is flagged as carried forward, not a fresh observation. The 27 Oct file predates Friday's close: Dangote Cement is priced at ₦1,341.90 against a Friday close of ₦1,420.00, and its printed 2,133.7x and MTN Nigeria's 81,073.1x (both Premium Board, outside these Main Board metrics) remain not meaningful.

Foreign Portfolio Investment (FPI)

Metric	Current (Sep-26)	Prior (Aug-26)	Trend

FPI Sell Value (₦bn)	98.62	35.56	↑

Source: NGX Domestic & Foreign Portfolio Investment Reports for August and September 2026. FPI buy = foreign inflow (purchases), sell = foreign outflow (sales). Ratio and net flow computed by Equinox; net outflows shown in parentheses. September total transactions ₦1.8162tn (about $1.3664bn at ₦1,329.16/$), ▲43.06% MoM. Foreign transactions rose ▲208.14% MoM to ₦191.14bn (about $143.80mn), lifting the foreign share to 10.52%, the highest since June (10.90%). 2026 YTD foreign share 10.26% vs 21.56% in 2025 YTD.

Valuation Commentary

- Banks still offer the cheapest earnings on the NGX, at an average of 22.3x on the 27 Oct NGX file, but the spread within the sector is wide. Zenith trades at 9.1x and Access at 10.1x, against GTCO at 17.4x and First HoldCo at 66.6x, whose 65.11% rise in nine month PAT is not yet in trailing EPS. Consumer Goods at 59.1x and Oil & Gas at 52.0x price in growth, led by Seplat at 75.2x and Nestlé at 66.6x. Both sit well above the covered market multiple of 29.0x. Low multiples alone do not establish undervaluation, as GTCO and Zenith both reported lower nine month PAT this week. Two large caps lack a usable multiple:
  - Dangote Cement prints 2,133.7x because EPS is not restated; nine month EPS of ₦58.37, annualised, implies about 17.2x at the 27 Oct price of ₦1,341.90 and about 18.2x at Friday's ₦1,420 (an annualisation, not a forecast).
  - BUA Foods carries no published P/E; nine month EPS of ₦25.03, annualised, implies about 22.8x at ₦760.60.
- Foreign participation recovered in September. FPI buys rose to ₦92.52bn and sells to ₦98.62bn, lifting the buy/sell ratio to 0.94 and the foreign share of turnover to 10.52% from 4.89%. The ₦6.10bn net outflow, narrower than August's ₦9.09bn, is consistent with renewed participation rather than sustained net buying.

SECTION 9 | INVESTMENT THEME

THEME: Stock selection amid narrowing breadth and sector dispersion

OBSERVATION	The ASI rose 2.86% WoW to a record 254,299.49, but participation remained narrow. Decliners outnumbered advancers 48 to 33, and the Float Adjusted Index fell 1.37% while the Market Cap Weighted Index gained 5.12%. Dangote Cement added ₦5.21tn of capitalisation, more than the market's entire ₦4.60tn rise.
DRIVER	The equity rally reflects selective earnings delivery. Dangote Cement's nine month PBT rose 41.5% to ₦1.47tn, lifting the stock 27.81%, while GTCO's PAT fell 12.16% and Zenith's 11.6% on higher tax and funding costs, leaving the Banking Index down 10.42% in October. The liquidity backdrop is a separate factor: the 28 Oct NTB auction drew ₦1.91tn of bids for ₦800bn offered, but the DMO allotted only ₦71.16bn.
IMPLICATION	The headline gain overstates the average stock, so positioning should follow earnings confirmation rather than index momentum. Fixed income continues to offer an attractive nominal return, with the 364 day NTB stop rate at 15.80%, but comparisons with inflation and equity earnings yields should use comparable yield conventions and observation dates. Bank valuations warrant closer scrutiny after the correction, but the investment case should depend on earnings sustainability, capital adequacy and dividend capacity rather than low headline P/E multiples alone. Dangote Cement trades at about 18.2x annualised nine month EPS after a 40.6% rise in six sessions, so strong earnings do not justify any price.
RISK	The view is invalidated if concentration unwinds: a correction in Dangote Cement would erase the headline rally, because no broad base sits beneath it. Liquidity risk rises if the Dangote Petroleum IPO allotment returns little cash to the secondary market after the 10 Nov basis of allotment. A renewed naira slide from ₦1,346.26/$ or a hawkish surprise at the 23 and 24 Nov MPC would raise the hurdle for equities against fixed income.

SECTION 10 | OUTLOOK — SECTORAL VIEWS & EVENTS TO WATCH

Sectoral Outlook — Coming Week

Sector	View	Conviction	Rationale
Banking	N	M	Multiples are low on the 27 Oct NGX file (Zenith 9.1x, Access 10.1x), but nine month PAT fell 12.16% at GTCO and 11.6% at Zenith on higher tax and funding costs. Low multiples alone do not establish value; the view improves if remaining results show stable earnings, capital and dividend capacity.
Consumer Goods	OW	L	The bottom line recovery is encouraging but uneven in quality: Guinness grew revenue 20.37%, Nestlé's 51.5% PBT rise relied partly on FX gains and lower net finance costs, BUA Foods lifted PBT 11.08% on margins while revenue fell 19.35%, and Dangote Sugar's return to profit followed deleveraging. The index is up only 0.97% YTD, though the 59.1x average P/E caps upside.
Oil & Gas	N	M	Seplat's nine month PBT rose 52.75% and it declared a US$0.19 dividend, but at 75.2x and with the index up 127.90% YTD the recovery looks priced in. The concern is both valuation and sensitivity to a reversal from $117.75 Brent.
Industrial Goods	N	M	Dangote Cement's 41.5% PBT growth supports the move, with nine month EPS of ₦58.37 implying about 18.2x annualised at ₦1,420 (an annualisation, not a forecast), but a 40.6% gain in six sessions and a 114.91% YTD rise leave the sector exposed to profit taking.
Insurance	UW	M	The index is down 13.64% YTD and 5.52% MoM; results are mixed, with NEM PBT up 30.54% against Cornerstone down 6.93%, and LASACO's free float fell to 12.78%, below the Main Board requirement.
Telco (MTN/Airtel)	OW	M	MTN Nigeria's nine month PBT rose 59.4% on a 56.9% EBITDA margin, with capex at 18.7% of revenue and ₦860.8bn of dividends paid, while Airtel Africa's H1 PAT rose 20.5% in USD. The view rests on earnings visibility and dividend capacity; MTN lacks a usable published P/E and Airtel trades thinly.

OW = Overweight (expect outperformance) · N = Neutral · UW = Underweight · H/M/L = High/Medium/Low conviction, reflecting the strength of the principal driver against the valuation or risk constraint; each rationale names the condition that would change the view.

BULLISH FACTORS

- Large caps are delivering earnings: nine month PBT rose 59.4% at MTN Nigeria, 52.75% at Seplat, 51.5% at Nestlé and 41.5% at Dangote Cement, supporting the ASI's record 254,299.49.
- Domestic liquidity is looking for a home: the DMO rejected ₦1.84tn of bids at the 28 Oct NTB auction and cut the 364 day stop rate to 15.80%, while the MPR sits at 23.00% after a 350bp cut and September CPI eased to 14.63%.
- The external position is firm: gross reserves stand at $55.26bn, an 18 year high, and the naira firmed

BEARISH RISKS

- The rally is narrow: the Float Adjusted Index fell 1.37% while the ASI rose 2.86%, decliners led advancers 48 to 33, and three stocks accounted for 85.36% of turnover.
- Bank earnings are weakening: GTCO's effective tax rate rose to about 30.2% from 22.3%, and nine month PAT fell at both GTCO and Zenith, pressuring the dividend support behind the sector's 60.27% YTD gain.
- Investor funds remain tied up in the Dangote Petroleum IPO (4.1bn shares at ₦525, about

1.16% WoW to ₦1,346.26/$ on the NFEM. Brent at $117.75 supports FX inflows.	₦2.15tn) until allotment and refunds, while foreign investors remain net sellers (₦6.10bn net FPI outflow in September). The global AI selloff (Nasdaq down 2.86% on 30 Oct) and CME FedWatch odds of 87.4% for a December Fed hike (28 Oct) weigh on risk appetite.

Events to Watch — Next Week

Date	Event Type	Details & Why It Matters
3 Nov	Dangote Petroleum IPO returns collated; US midterm elections	Return data will show how much investor cash is committed to the refinery; the election outcome may shift global risk appetite.
6 Nov	Stanbic IBTC scrip election deadline (₦4.50 interim, reference price ₦159.86)	Scrip take-up shows whether investors prefer reinvesting in banks to taking cash.
10 Nov	Dangote Petroleum basis of allotment filed with SEC	The extent of refunds will determine how much cash returns to the secondary market.
16 Nov	FGN bond auction, ₦2tn across the 2034, 2036 and 2038 bonds	Stop rates against October's 17.29% (2036) set the hurdle equities must clear.
23 and 24 Nov	CBN MPC meeting	A further cut would extend the equity case; a hold with hawkish guidance would favour fixed income.
