Report Date 5 Oct 2026	Coverage Period 28 Sep – 2 Oct 2026	Prepared By Equinox Research	Edition Vol. 1 No. 15
----------------------------------	---	--	---------------------------------

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- Rates dominated a volatile week as the US 10Y touched 5.345%, its highest since April 2002, leaving the S&P 500 ▼0.27% WoW at 7,722.72 while Brent held above $100 at $102.85.
- The NGX ASI fell ▼0.52% WoW to 250,808.27, trimming YTD return to ▲61.17% on 3.17bn shares worth ₦155.02bn in four sessions, while Ghana led Africa at ▲1.35% and South Africa lagged at ▼2.21%.
- Insurance led at ▲0.61% and Banking lagged at ▼1.33% as none of the ten largest stocks advanced, with ABC Transport ▲45.10% the top gainer and Sovereign Trust Insurance ▼12.50% the steepest faller.
- The naira was broadly unchanged at ₦1,327.66/$ with the parallel spread narrowing to ₦52.34, reserves at $54.92bn and the MPR at 23.00% against August CPI of 15.39%, a real policy rate of 7.61pp.
- Liquidity is the key risk into the 13 Oct close of the ₦2.15tn Dangote Refinery offer, about 14 times weekly turnover, while Zenith's results, due by 9 Oct, follow GTCO's ₦603.03bn H1 PBT.

Market Outlook — Coming Week

- Post inclusion demand is still unproven and activity has thinned. The ASI fell ▼0.52% in the second week after FTSE Frontier inclusion, value traded dropped ▼35.6% to ₦155.02bn and volume ▼32.5% to 3.17bn shares. Adjusting for the four session week, daily value still fell ▼19.5%. The latest flow data remain August's 4.89% foreign share of turnover and ₦9.09bn net outflow, so the September FPI report is still the first read on post inclusion buying. The coming week returns to five sessions.
- Breadth stayed positive but leadership narrowed. Advancers outnumbered decliners 44 to 37, taking the advance/decline ratio to 1.19x from 1.91x, yet none of the ten largest stocks rose and the group lost ₦1.01tn against ₦0.81tn for the whole market. Speculative appetite persists in small caps: ABC Transport gained ▲45.10% through four sessions near the daily limit and VFD Group saw 367.3m shares cross on Wednesday. At 1.28% below the 254,067.42 52 week high, a sustained breakout would likely require participation from the banks, where the index fell in three consecutive sessions and closed ▼1.33% WoW.
- The valuation gap was little changed. At 19.49x excluding constituents above 100x, the covered Main Board offers a 5.13% earnings yield against a 15.95% FGN 10 year, a 10.82pp gap from 10.86pp a week ago. Banks are the exception at 17.61x excluding First HoldCo, with GTCO's H1 PBT of ₦603.03bn and Stanbic IBTC's ▲40.13% PBT growth already reported. Zenith's audited H1 results, expected by 9 Oct, are the next test; Access has a second extension with no date.
- Three risks could interrupt the trend: liquidity, global rates and oil.

EQUINOX FRONTIER MARKETS WEEKLY

Equinox Research · Institutional Markets Intelligence · Confidential

Week of: 2 Oct 2026

- Liquidity: The ₦2.15tn Dangote Refinery offer closes on 13 Oct and is a potentially significant competing use of domestic investment liquidity, with talks under way with the SEC on enlarging it.
- Global rates: Weaker US payrolls trimmed the odds of an October Fed hike, albeit the US 10Y closed at 5.277% and the dollar index at 101.88. The rand's ▼2.23% week shows how quickly frontier and emerging currencies can reprice.
- Oil and inflation: Brent at $102.85 and Bonny Light at $117.92 support reserves but keep fuel costs elevated, so a fourth consecutive CPI decline is not assured ahead of the 23 to 24 Nov MPC.

Global Markets Commentary

- Rates drove the week. The US 10Y yield touched 5.345% on Thursday, its highest since April 2002, before settling at 5.277%. The S&P 500 closed at 7,722.72 (▼0.27% WoW), with Friday's ▲0.73% rebound following weaker than expected jobs data.
- Oil remains the inflation transmission channel. Brent closed at $102.85 after a roughly 14% gain in September, with stress shifting from crude supply to refined products as China suspended product exports and Europe agreed to release diesel reserves.
- Japan diverged from a weaker global tape. The Nikkei 225 rose ▲2.93% WoW to 68,309.46 (▲31.79% YTD) with the yen at 157.84 per dollar. STOXX 600 fell ▼1.14% amid French bond weakness, Shanghai ▼1.19% and KOSPI ▼1.09%.
- Dollar strength and gold weakness completed the tightening picture. The dollar index ended at 101.88 from 101.20 on Monday, the euro at $1.1256. Spot gold closed at $4,141.99 after Monday's ▼3.85% drop and a ▼6.6% September.

FX tables are quoted on the currency-pair convention: a negative figure denotes a fall in USD/NGN, that is, naira appreciation. Narrative commentary describes moves in the local currency, so a rise in the pair is reported as local currency weakness.

Frontier Africa Commentary

- Four of five markets fell. Ghana led at ▲1.35% WoW, though a ▼1.12% cedi move absorbed most of the gain in dollar terms. South Africa lagged at ▼2.21% WoW and is the only market negative YTD (▼6.44%).

EQUINOX FRONTIER MARKETS WEEKLY

Equinox Research · Institutional Markets Intelligence · Confidential

Week of: 2 Oct 2026

- South Africa's weakness is commodity led. The JSE shed R1.61tn in September as precious metals miners fell more than 17% on weaker gold and platinum. The 14 day RSI fell below 30 for the first time since April 2025.
- The rand led regional currency losses at ▼2.23% WoW to R16.64 per dollar, followed by the cedi (▼1.12%) and Egyptian pound (▼1.08%). The naira was broadly unchanged at ₦1,327.66/$ in the official market, while the parallel rate strengthened to ₦1,380.00/$ from ₦1,385.00/$.
- Primary issuance demand is diverging. Airtel Money priced its London listing at £1.96, a £5.3bn ($7bn) valuation below the £6bn to £6.7bn previously reported. Dangote Refinery's ₦2.15tn offer closes 13 Oct, with an upsizing under discussion.

SECTION 3 | NIGERIA — MARKET PULSE

Market Snapshot Commentary

- The NGX ASI closed at 250,808.27, ▼0.52% WoW, giving back 1,305.14 points and more than half of the prior week's ▲0.92% gain. YTD return eased to ▲61.17% from ▲62.01%, and market capitalisation fell ₦812bn to ₦162.84tn. Losses in MTN Nigeria, First HoldCo, Access Holdings and GTCO outweighed gains in Fidelity Bank and UACN. The ₦2.15tn Dangote Refinery offer, open until 13 Oct and equal to roughly 14 times this week's turnover, is a potentially significant competing use of domestic investment liquidity.
- Value traded fell ▼35.6% WoW to ₦155.02bn from ₦240.82bn, and deals dropped ▼20.9% to 206,662. Volume fell ▼32.5% to 3.17bn shares from 4.69bn. Breadth stayed positive, with 44 advancers against 37 decliners and 65 unchanged, although the advance/decline ratio eased to 1.19x from 1.91x. Positive breadth alongside a lower ASI and no advancing large cap points to narrow, lower quality leadership.
- The week was shortened to four sessions by the 1 Oct Independence Day holiday. On that basis, average daily value fell ▼19.5% to ₦38.76bn, while the daily deal count was nearly flat at 51,666 against 52,240. The ASI sits 1.28% below its 52 week high of 254,067.42.

MTD and QTD are measured from the 30 Sep 2026 close. They are identical because October opens both the month and the quarter, and 1 Oct was a market holiday.

Market Snapshot Commentary

- Insurance led at ▲0.61% WoW to 1,100.30, while Banking was the weakest equity sector at ▼1.33% to 2,685.71. Friday's ▲1.21% session turned Insurance positive for the week, led by AIICO (▲10.00% to ₦4.18), Consolidated Hallmark (▲4.49%) and AXA Mansard (▲3.64%); the index remains ▼7.48% YTD. Banking fell in three consecutive sessions after Monday's ▲1.14% rise on profit taking in GTCO (▼3.28% Tuesday), Access Holdings (▼2.51% Tuesday) and First HoldCo (▼6.16% Friday), against a ▲77.18% YTD gain.
- Consumer Goods lost ▼0.91% on Unilever (▼8.55% Tuesday) and PZ Cussons (▼9.91% Friday). Industrial Goods eased ▼0.26% with BUA Cement ▼3.10% on Tuesday. Oil & Gas was flat at ▲0.05% despite Brent at $102.85, and the Sovereign Bond Index fell ▼1.15%. Rotation favoured YTD laggards over September's leaders; the delayed H1 audited results due next week, starting with Zenith by 9 Oct, will test whether the Banking pullback extends.

Market Movers Commentary

- VFD Group rose ▲18.42% WoW to ₦13.50 on concentrated block activity: 367.3m shares crossed in 426 trades on Wednesday, before a ▼6.90% Friday reversal. ABC Transport gained ▲45.10% to ₦7.40 through four sessions near the daily limit with no catalyst identified, a sign of speculative appetite in small caps while Seplat and Aradel closed unchanged. NGX Group fell ▼8.86% to ₦168.60, consistent with profit taking after its September run. Fidelity Bank, VFD Group and Access Holdings together accounted for 1.343bn shares worth ₦27.58bn, or 42.42% of market volume.

MTN Nigeria (▼ 2.67% to ₦840.00). GTCO's decline came despite H1 PBT of ₦603.03bn. The week's selling was concentrated in relatively lower multiple banks, suggesting profit taking or positioning rather than a broad valuation driven sell off: Zenith, Access and GTCO trade at 10.1x to 18.7x earnings, while unchanged Nestlé and Seplat sit at 70.2x and 75.2x.

Airtel Africa held ₦23.68tn, unchanged at ₦6,300.00 for a sixth consecutive week, and remains the most capitalised stock on the NGX by a ₦5.68tn margin. Dangote Cement reclaimed second place at ₦18.00tn, flat at ₦1,066.70, as MTN Nigeria fell ▼ 2.67% to ₦840.00 for ₦17.64tn, turning a ₦0.12tn lead into a ₦0.36tn deficit. Capitalisations are the official NGX market capitalisations published in the Current Equity P/E Ratios file of 2 Oct 2026.

- Telecoms (blue): Airtel Africa ₦23.68tn at ₦6,300.00 (▲ 178% YTD), unchanged on the week; MTN Nigeria ₦17.64tn at ₦840.00 (▲ 64% YTD, ▼ 2.67% WoW), the week's largest naira decline at ₦23.00 and now third by capitalisation.
- Industrial (green): Dangote Cement ₦18.00tn at ₦1,066.70 (▲ 75% YTD, flat WoW), against an Industrial Goods Index ▼ 0.26% WoW.
- Consumer goods (pink): BUA Foods ₦13.69tn at ₦760.60, unchanged for a seventh week and still the only large cap negative YTD at ▼ 5%. Nestlé ₦2.30tn, flat at ₦2,900.00 (70.2x), against a Consumer Goods Index ▼ 0.91%.
- Oil and gas (amber): Seplat ₦9.60tn, flat at its record ₦16,000.10 (▲ 185% YTD, 75.2x), with the Oil & Gas Index ▲ 0.05%.
- Banking (purple): First HoldCo ₦6.82tn at ₦150.05 (▼ 4.18% WoW after Friday's ▼ 6.16%, ▲ 208% YTD, 64.5x); Zenith ₦5.52tn at ₦134.50 (▼ 0.30%, 10.1x); GTCO ₦4.85tn at ₦132.80 (▼ 3.07%, 18.7x); Access ₦1.66tn at ₦30.50 (▼ 3.33%, 10.8x).

Leadership reversed against last week. None of the ten names rose, five were flat and five fell, against five risers and two decliners a week ago. Aggregate capitalisation across the ten stood at ₦103.76tn, a fall of ₦1.01tn or ▼0.96% WoW, a steeper fall than the ASI ▼0.52%. The ten lost more than the ₦0.81tn shed by the whole market, so stocks outside the group added roughly ₦0.20tn. Banks and MTN carried the loss: the four banks gave up ₦0.52tn between them and MTN ₦0.48tn. The valuation dispersion narrowed again, First HoldCo at 64.5x against Zenith at 10.1x (6.4x apart, from 6.6x). Airtel Africa and Seplat again show the gap between index weight and investable liquidity: ₦23.68tn and ₦9.60tn of capitalisation with no price change, while Fidelity Bank led weekly volume on a far smaller capitalisation.

Macro Commentary

- The naira was broadly unchanged at ₦1,327.66/$ in the official market, while the parallel rate strengthened to about ₦1,380/$ from ₦1,385/$. The spread narrowed to ₦52.34, or 3.9%, from ₦57.57. Sterling was little changed at ₦1,752.71 and the euro eased to ₦1,494.02 as the dollar strengthened. The naira held steady in a week when the rand lost ▼2.23% and the cedi ▼1.12%.
- The MPR stands at 23.00% after the 350bp cut from 26.50% on 22 Sep. No MPC meeting was held this week; the next is scheduled for 23 to 24 Nov. Headline CPI eased to 15.39% YoY in August 2026 from 15.43% in July, a third consecutive monthly decline, which leaves the real policy rate at 7.61 percentage points. The FGN 10 year yield was 15.95% on 30 Sep (prior: 15.97%), a ▼2bp move. The local curve did not follow the US 10Y, which touched 5.345% during the week.
- Brent settled at $102.85/bbl, ▼1.41% WoW from $104.32, as recovering Middle East crude flows offset stalled talks between the US and Iran. Bonny Light was $117.92/bbl on 30 Sep, ▼1.22% and about $14 above Brent on the same date. Gross reserves rose ▲0.11% to $54.92bn at 29 Sep from $54.86bn. Gold fell ▼3.47% to $4,137.55/oz. CBN action this week: none on the policy rate.
- Events to watch next week: Zenith Bank H1 2026 audited results, expected on or before 9 Oct; PZ Cussons dividend qualification, 9 Oct; final full week of the Dangote Refinery offer before the 13 Oct close.

SECTION 8 | NIGERIA — MARKET METRICS & VALUATION
Valuation Metrics

Metric	Current (2 Oct 2026)	Prior Week (25 Sep 2026)	Change
NGX Main Board weighted contribution ratio (NGX published; see note)	40.57x	38.63x	+1.94

Consumer Goods avg P/E (Main Board)	60.19x	60.22x	-0.03
Oil & Gas avg P/E (Main and Premium boards)	53.27x	52.19x	+1.08
Market Dividend Yield (avg), latest observation 14 Aug 2026	3.75% (carried forward from 14 Aug 2026)	3.75% (carried forward from 14 Aug 2026)	N/A

Source: NGX Current Equity P/E Ratios files of 2 Oct 2026 and 25 Sep 2026. Methodology note: the ratio NGX publishes as the Main Board Market Total (40.57 on 2 Oct 2026) is the sum, across constituents, of market capitalisation divided by total market capitalisation on all boards, multiplied by that constituent's P/E. On 2 Oct 2026 the implied denominator is approximately ₦167.18tn against a Main Board capitalisation of ₦95.10tn, and only ₦33.68tn of Main Board capitalisation carries a published P/E. The ₦167.18tn reconciles to the ₦162.84tn equity market capitalisation reported for 2 Oct plus the ₦3.70tn debt board and ₦0.64tn mutual fund board, so the NGX denominator spans every board, not equities only. The published figure is therefore a coverage limited weighted contribution, not a cap weighted market P/E, and is retained here only for continuity with prior issues. Its 1.94 point rise is concentrated in one line: Transcorp Hotels (594.5x) gained ₦25.00 to ₦290.50 on the week, which on unchanged trailing earnings adds about 1.8 points on its own. Equinox recomputes a covered Main Board cap weighted trailing P/E as total covered capitalisation divided by total covered earnings, where earnings are derived as capitalisation divided by the published P/E. Coverage on 2 Oct 2026 is 78 of 125 Main Board lines, unchanged from 25 Sep; 26 of the 78 print above 100x. Sector figures are equal weighted trailing P/E across constituents reporting usable data, excluding any constituent above 100x. Banking covers 9 of 11 bank and bank holdco lines across the Main, Premium and Non-Interest boards, excluding Wema at 790.7x and Jaiz at 283.7x. Consumer Goods covers 7 of 13 Main Board lines with a published P/E, the same count as on 25 Sep. Oil & Gas covers all 6 lines with a published P/E across the Main and Premium boards, the same six as on 25 Sep; the rise reflects Eterna's ▲ 12.82% weekly gain to ₦44.00, which lifts its P/E to 58.8x from about 52.1x. Market Dividend Yield is unchanged from 14 Aug 2026 and is flagged as carried forward, not a fresh observation.

Valuation Commentary

- Banks remain the cheapest of the three sectors tracked at an average 22.81x, against Oil & Gas at 53.27x and Consumer Goods at 60.19x. Zenith (10.11x) and Access (10.84x) trade at a little over half GTCO's 18.70x, while First HoldCo sits at 64.45x even though it reported H1 2026 PBT of ₦653.54bn, which suggests its NGX trailing EPS is not on the same basis as peers.
- NGX trailing P/Es may not reflect a common earnings period across banks, so the comparison is indicative. Excluding First HoldCo, the bank average is 17.61x, below the covered Main Board at 29.76x and at 19.49x once constituents above 100x are removed.
- Seplat (75.22x) and Nestlé (70.21x) carry the highest usable large cap multiples and were unchanged on the week. NGX reported P/E values for several large cap names, including Dangote Cement and MTN Nigeria, appear distorted by stale or anomalous EPS inputs and are excluded from the aggregate valuation analysis; BUA Foods has no published P/E. The week's selling was concentrated in relatively lower multiple banks, suggesting profit taking or positioning rather than a broad valuation driven sell off.
- Foreign participation weakened again in August. Buying fell to ₦26.47bn against ₦35.56bn of selling, a net outflow of ₦9.09bn, and foreign share of turnover slipped to 4.89% from 5.60% as total transactions fell 46.38% to ₦1.27tn. The narrower net outflow reflects lighter selling (▼60.9%), not renewed buying (▼36.4%). Domestic institutions drove the slowdown, ▼60.39% to ₦654.61bn. September data will provide the first read on whether the 21 Sep FTSE reclassification changes the trend.

SECTION 9 | INVESTMENT THEME

Theme: The recent rally appears increasingly influenced by domestic liquidity, monetary easing and event-driven positioning, while a recovery in foreign participation has yet to be demonstrated

OBSERVATION	Two weeks after Nigeria returned to FTSE Frontier status on 21 Sep, with 30 companies entering the index series, the available price and turnover data show no clear evidence of sustained index buying. Value traded fell ▼35.6% WoW to ₦155.02bn, or ▼19.5% on a daily basis in a four session week. None of the ten largest stocks rose: five fell and five, including Airtel Africa, Dangote Cement and Seplat, did not change price. The ASI gave back ▼0.52% after gaining ▲0.92% in reclassification week. The September foreign portfolio flow report, not yet published, will be the first direct read on foreign participation.
DRIVER	Available evidence continues to point to domestic liquidity as the more visible marginal source of demand, although September FPI data is needed to confirm whether foreign participation has increased following FTSE reclassification. The Dangote Refinery IPO represents a potentially significant competing use of domestic investment liquidity: the ₦2.15tn offer, open until 13 Oct, equals about 14 times this week's turnover, a comparison of scale rather than a measure of funds withdrawn, and Bamboo saw a 350% surge in new accounts around it. Selling concentrated in banks (index ▼1.33%) after September's run, even though they average 17.61x excluding First HoldCo against 29.76x for the covered Main Board. The pattern is more consistent with profit taking or positioning than with a broad valuation driven sell off, although the distinction cannot be established from one week of price action.
IMPLICATION	The market access backdrop has improved materially, but the restoration of access has yet to translate into demonstrable foreign buying. The naira was broadly unchanged at ₦1,327.66/$, the parallel spread narrowed to ₦52.34 (3.9%), reserves stand at $54.92bn and the MPR is down 350bp to 23.00% against CPI of 15.39%. Foreign investors will also weigh liquidity, free float, transaction costs and repatriation. Investable liquidity in the index heavyweights remains limited, with Airtel Africa and Seplat carrying ₦33.28tn of capitalisation between them and no price change this week. Reclassification should be read as access restored, not flow delivered. Index demand is most readily met in the liquid banks, where Zenith trades at 10.11x, Access at 10.84x and GTCO at 18.70x.
RISK	The thesis would be weakened if the September flow report shows foreign purchases well above the ₦26.47bn recorded in August, or if weekly turnover recovers above ₦240.82bn once the Dangote offer closes. A November listing that brings new investors in, instead of rotating existing holdings, would also argue against it. The FX window could narrow before flows arrive if the parallel spread widens from ₦52.34 or reserves reverse from $54.92bn, with Brent at $102.85 and the US 10Y at 5.277% the external variables to watch.

SECTION 10 | OUTLOOK — SECTORAL VIEWS & EVENTS TO WATCH
Sectoral Outlook — Coming Week

Sector	View	Conviction	Rationale
Banking	OW	M	Valuation is supportive at 17.61x excluding First HoldCo against 29.76x for the covered Main Board, and GTCO (₦1.00) and Stanbic IBTC (₦4.50) have declared interim dividends. Earnings confirmation from the delayed Access and Zenith H1 audited results is the catalyst; the delay itself is the main uncertainty.
Consumer Goods	N	L	Highest sector multiple at 60.19x and the weakest price record, up 2.05% YTD and down 0.91% WoW, argue for caution. Earnings evidence is mixed, with Unilever H1 PBT up 20.79% but Honeywell FY revenue down 3.4% and NNFM PBT down 96.1%, so an Underweight is not yet supported.
Oil & Gas	N	M	Fundamentals remain supportive with Brent at $102.85 and Bonny Light at $117.92, but much of the good news appears priced in: the index is up 133.94% YTD and Seplat trades at 75.22x at a record ₦16,000.10.
Industrial Goods	N	L	Index down 0.26% WoW and up 83.92% YTD with Dangote Cement flat at ₦1,066.70. The NGX reported P/E for Dangote Cement is distorted and BUA Cement has none published, so valuation cannot be anchored.
Insurance	N	L	Week's best sector, up 0.61%, but still down 7.48% YTD. Recapitalisation supply is heavy: Guinea Insurance and Regency Alliance listed about ₦7.03bn of new shares on 28 Sep, and African Alliance has approval to raise up to ₦12bn.
Telco (MTN/Airtel)	N	L	MTN Nigeria fell 2.67% to ₦840.00 and Airtel Africa has not moved from ₦6,300.00 in six weeks. The Airtel Money pricing at £5.3bn, below the £6bn to £6.7bn expected, is the next valuation marker.

▲ BULLISH FACTORS

- Policy easing with a positive real rate: the MPR was cut 350bp to 23.00% on 22 Sep and CPI eased to 15.39% in August, a third consecutive decline, leaving 7.61 percentage points of real policy rate.
- FX stability and external buffers: the naira was broadly unchanged at ₦1,327.66/$, the parallel spread narrowed to ₦52.34 (3.9%) and gross reserves reached $54.92bn.
- Earnings support at low multiples: GTCO reported H1 PBT of ₦603.03bn at 18.70x and Stanbic IBTC grew PBT ▲40.13%, while Zenith and Access trade at 10.11x and 10.84x.

▼ BEARISH RISKS

- Potential liquidity diversion: the ₦2.15tn Dangote Refinery offer is a potentially significant competing use of domestic liquidity at about 14 times this week's ₦155.02bn turnover, value traded fell ▼35.6% WoW, and an upsizing is under discussion with the SEC.
- Narrow leadership at full valuations: none of the ten largest stocks rose, the group lost ₦1.01tn, and 26 of 78 covered Main Board lines print above 100x with the ASI ▲61.17% YTD and 1.28% below its 52 week high.
- Global rates and oil: the US 10Y touched 5.345%, its highest since April 2002, the dollar index closed at 101.88, and the rand's ▼2.23% week shows how quickly frontier and emerging FX can reprice.
