EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- Global markets were mixed, with the S&P 500 ▲1.15% WoW to 7,811.54 while the US 10Y eased to 5.25% from 5.28%, KOSPI fell ▼5.39% and Brent rose ▲2.42% to $104.72.
- The NGX ASI fell ▼0.97% WoW to 248,363.55, a second weekly decline that trimmed the YTD return to ▲59.60% on 2.72bn shares worth ₦158.28bn, while Egypt led Africa at ▲0.40%.
- Industrial Goods alone rose, ▲0.02%, while Oil & Gas fell ▼3.85% on Aradel's ▼10.00% limit down session, with Livestock Feeds ▲47.75% the top gainer and Critical Minerals Financing ▼20.27% the steepest faller.
- The naira held at ₦1,330.01/$ as the parallel spread widened to ₦54.99, with reserves at $54.98bn and the MPR at 23.00% against August CPI of 15.39%, an ex post real policy rate of 7.61pp.
- Liquidity is the key risk into the 13 Oct close of the ₦2.15tn Dangote Refinery offer, about 14 times weekly turnover, while Zenith's ₦637.60bn H1 PBT leaves Access and Fidelity as the outstanding bank results.

Market Outlook — Coming Week

- Activity thinned beneath a second weekly decline. The ASI fell ▼0.97%, volume dropped ▼14.2% to 2.72bn shares and value traded edged up ▲2.1% to ₦158.28bn; adjusting for the prior four session week, daily value fell ▼18.3%. The latest flow data remain August's 4.89% foreign share of turnover and ₦9.09bn net outflow, which predate the 21 Sep reclassification, so the September FPI report will be the first read on post inclusion buying.
- Breadth turned negative, though large caps fell less than the market. Decliners outnumbered advancers 54 to 24, taking the advance/decline ratio to 0.44x from 1.19x, and only one of the 20 NGX indices rose. The ten watch list stocks lost ₦0.50tn (▼0.49%) against ₦1.58tn for the whole market (▼0.97%): five were unchanged and the loss was concentrated in First HoldCo and Nestlé. Aradel's limit down session alone marked an estimated ₦0.66tn off market value. At 2.2% below the 254,067.42 52 week high the pullback is shallow, but Banking fell in four consecutive sessions to close ▼2.64% WoW and Oil & Gas ended at 6,005.98, just above 6,000.
- The valuation gap narrowed slightly. At 19.12x excluding constituents above 100x, the covered Main Board offers a 5.23% earnings yield on a capitalisation weighted basis, against the latest available FGN 10 year yield of 15.95% (30 Sep), a 10.72pp gap from 10.82pp a week ago. Banks are lower rated: the equal weighted sector average is 22.09x, or 17.14x excluding First HoldCo at 61.7x. Zenith reported H1 PBT of ₦637.60bn and raised its interim dividend to ₦1.50, though PAT fell ▼19.1% on tax. Access and Fidelity both hold extensions with no date.
- Three risks could deepen the pullback: liquidity, global rates and inflation.

- Liquidity: The ₦2.15tn Dangote Refinery offer closes on 13 Oct, and the CBN's 6 Oct OMO auction absorbed a net ₦1.14tn after ₦2.17tn of maturities, at stop rates near 17%. Both compete for domestic liquidity, although neither figure measures how much would otherwise have gone into equities.
- Global rates: US September CPI on 14 Oct precedes the 27 to 28 Oct Fed meeting, with the US 10Y at 5.25% after touching 5.35% and the euro touching a 17 month low of $1.116 during the week.
- Oil and inflation: Brent at $104.72 supports reserves but keeps fuel costs elevated; Cordros forecasts September CPI at 15.40%, which would end three months of declines ahead of the 23 to 24 Nov MPC. The NBS release date is not yet confirmed.

Global Markets Commentary

- US equities rose in a week when yields eased and oil stayed above $100. S&P 500 ▲1.15% WoW to 7,811.54, alongside a US 10Y Treasury yield of 5.25% against 5.28% a week earlier and firm demand at the 10 year auction (cover 2.77x). US third quarter earnings season begins next week, with analysts on average forecasting S&P 500 earnings growth of more than 30% YoY (Reuters).
- Europe was flat amid French fiscal stress. STOXX 600 ▲0.03% WoW to 631.55 (▼0.53% MoM); the euro touched $1.116 on Monday, a 17 month low, before closing the week at $1.1200. The French spread over Bunds narrowed to 135bp on Monday from 160bp the previous Friday (Reuters).
- Asia diverged. KOSPI ▼5.39% WoW to 6,625.93, the week's steepest decline, alongside Thursday's semiconductor slump (Nasdaq ▼1.25%). Nikkei 225 ▲1.06% lifted its YTD gain to 33.18%; Shanghai Composite ▼0.74%, leaving it ▼5.21% YTD.
- Brent closed at $104.72, ▲2.42% WoW and above $100 all week, as Hurricane Isaias shut in 1.3mn bpd (62.9%) of Gulf of Mexico output as of Thursday and Iran headlines reversed repeatedly. Gold closed at $4,195.82/oz, ▲1.41% WoW, after touching a two month low midweek.

FX tables are quoted on the currency-pair convention: a negative figure denotes a fall in USD/NGN, that is, naira appreciation. Narrative commentary describes moves in the local currency, so a rise in the pair is reported as local currency weakness.

Frontier Africa Commentary

- Egypt led locally, EGX 30 ▲0.40% WoW, but South Africa won in USD terms: JSE All Share ▲0.14% plus a rand gain of 0.89% gives roughly ▲1.04%. JSE is still ▼6.86% MoM, the only index negative YTD.
- Nigeria and Kenya were the laggards, each ▼0.97% WoW; Kenya's NSE All Share fell to 244.93 from 247.32. NGX ASI at 248,363.55 is consolidating a ▲59.60% YTD run, while a 0.12% shilling slide makes Kenya the weakest in USD terms at roughly ▼1.09%.
- Currency is the YTD divider. NGX ASI ▲59.60% and GSE Composite ▲60.24% are level locally, yet naira appreciation of 8.05% against cedi depreciation of 7.80% puts USD returns near ▲74% and ▲49%. Parallel naira premium widened to 4.13%.
- Regional capital market integration is the theme. Kenyan and Ugandan regulators approved routes for local investors into Dangote Petroleum Refinery's $1.6bn IPO, with a GDR tranche of nearly 20% of the offer, up to $300.4mn, set aside for East Africa. The figure is an allocation ceiling; subscriptions have not been reported, and Uganda limits access to professional and high net worth investors. Proceeds fund expansion from 700,000 bpd to 1.4mn bpd.

SECTION 3 | NIGERIA — MARKET PULSE

Market Snapshot Commentary

- The NGX ASI fell ▼0.97% WoW to 248,363.55, a second consecutive weekly decline after the prior week's ▼0.52%, trimming the YTD return to ▲59.60% from ▲61.17%. Market capitalisation contracted by ₦1.58tn to ₦161.26tn. Losses were concentrated in Oil & Gas (▼3.85%) and Banking (▼2.64%); the index fell in four sessions and recovered ▲0.13% on Friday.
- Breadth deteriorated sharply. Decliners outnumbered advancers 54 to 24, cutting the advance to decline ratio to 0.44x from 1.19x, with 68 securities unchanged. Volume fell ▼14.2% to 2.72bn shares, while value traded rose ▲2.1% to ₦158.28bn and deals ▲1.6% to 209,986. Financial Services accounted for 73.84% of volume and 52.39% of value.
- The index sits 2.2% below its 52 week high of 254,067.42 and 76.1% above the 52 week low of 141,020.95, leaving the two week pullback of 1.5% shallow against the trend. The prior week had four sessions because of the 1 October Independence Day closure; on a daily average basis, value traded fell ▼18.3% to ₦31.66bn from ₦38.76bn.

MTD and QTD are measured from the 30 Sep 2026 close. They are identical because October opens both the month and the quarter, and 1 Oct was a market holiday.

Market Snapshot Commentary

- Industrial Goods was the only sector index to gain, ▲0.02% WoW to 10,442.50, with Dangote Cement (₦1,066.70) and BUA Cement (₦297.00) unchanged and CAP adding ▲8.50% on Friday. Oil & Gas was the worst performer, ▼3.85% to 6,005.98, with almost all of the loss on Thursday (▼3.87%) when Aradel (▼10.00% to ₦1,377) and Eterna (▼10.00% to ₦41.40) hit limit down. Brent rose about 3% that day, so the move is consistent with profit taking after a ▲124.92% YTD gain and not with a weaker oil price.
- Banking fell ▼2.64% to 2,614.79 across four straight losing sessions, led by First HoldCo (▼5.09% Tuesday) and Fidelity (▼8.70% Friday to ₦21.00). Pension (▼2.12%) and Insurance (▼1.74%) followed.
- The week's decline was concentrated in Oil & Gas and Banking. The available index data are consistent with profit taking, but do not establish whether investors rotated into other sectors. Industrial Goods was the only sector index to rise; sustained relative strength would provide stronger evidence of a change in positioning. Oil & Gas closed just above 6,000 after Oando's ▲6.90% Friday rebound.

Per stock weekly volume and value are Equinox estimates aggregated from daily trading data. The three most active stocks by volume sum to the 1.020bn shares reported by NGX for Access Holdings, Zenith Bank and UBA, and to within 0.5% of the ₦50.52bn reported value. Market volume is 2.72bn shares.

Market Movers Commentary

- Access Holdings dominated: about 720.6mn shares, 26.5% of market volume, for a weekly price move of ▼3.28% to ₦29.50. Monday's 440.7mn share session followed a further NGX extension for its H1 2026 audited results, which still await CBN approval. Aradel fell ▼10.00% to ₦1,377.00 in a single limit down session on Thursday and held that level on Friday, on an estimated ₦21.7bn of turnover at an average of about ₦1,500, so most of the week's turnover cleared above the close. The largest percentage gains came on thin liquidity: Livestock Feeds (▲47.75% to ₦13.15), Tripple Gee (▲32.62%) and Guinea Insurance (▲29.17%) each traded only a small fraction of the roughly ₦21.9bn turnover in Access Holdings.

Market Movers Commentary

- Large caps fell less than the market on a capitalisation weighted basis: the ten watch list names lost ▼0.49% in aggregate against ▼0.97% for the ASI, although their simple average was ▼1.35%, with one gainer, four decliners and five unchanged. Selling was concentrated in highly rated names.

Nestlé fell ▼5.17% to ₦2,750.00 at 66.6x earnings and First HoldCo ▼4.27% to ₦143.65 at 61.7x, about six times Zenith's 10.1x; Zenith was the sole gainer at ▲0.15%. MTN Nigeria closed flat at ₦840.00 after touching ₦818.00 on Thursday. Several large caps recorded no weekly price change despite declines in their sector indices, including Seplat at ₦16,000.10 while Oil & Gas fell ▼3.85%; these unchanged closes should be read alongside trading volumes before drawing conclusions about market resilience.

- Consumer goods (pink): BUA Foods ₦13.69tn at ₦760.60, unchanged for an eighth week and still the only large cap negative YTD at ▼5%. Nestlé ₦2.18tn at ₦2,750.00 (▼5.17% WoW, ▲40% YTD, 66.6x), the week's weakest large cap, against a Consumer Goods Index ▼0.58%.
- Oil and gas (amber): Seplat ₦9.60tn, flat at its record ₦16,000.10 (▲185% YTD, 75.2x), while the Oil & Gas Index fell ▼3.85%.
- Banking (purple): First HoldCo ₦6.53tn at ₦143.65 (▼4.27% WoW, ▲194% YTD, 61.7x); Zenith ₦5.53tn at ₦134.70 (▲0.15%, 10.1x); GTCO ₦4.81tn at ₦131.50 (▼0.98%, 18.5x); Access ₦1.60tn at ₦29.50 (▼3.28%, 10.5x), against a Banking Index ▼2.64%.

Large caps fell less than the market. One of the ten names rose, five were flat and four fell, against no risers and five decliners a week ago. Aggregate capitalisation across the ten stood at ₦103.26tn, a fall of ₦0.50tn or ▼0.49% WoW, half the ASI's ▼0.97%. The ten account for under a third of the ₦1.58tn shed by the whole market, so stocks outside the group lost roughly ₦1.08tn. Aradel's ▼10.00% alone marked an estimated ₦0.66tn off market value (₦153 a share on 4.34bn shares). Within the group, First HoldCo gave up ₦0.29tn and Nestlé ₦0.12tn, 81% of the loss between them. The valuation dispersion narrowed again, First HoldCo at 61.7x against Zenith at 10.1x (6.1x apart, from 6.4x). Airtel Africa and Seplat again show the gap between index weight and investable liquidity: ₦23.68tn and ₦9.60tn of capitalisation with no price change, while Access Holdings led weekly volume with more than 700mn shares on ₦1.60tn of capitalisation.

Source: NGX Current Equity P/E Ratios files of 9 Oct 2026 and 2 Oct 2026. Methodology note: the ratio NGX publishes as the Main Board Market Total (41.39 on 9 Oct 2026) is the sum, across constituents, of market capitalisation divided by total market capitalisation on all boards, multiplied by that constituent's P/E. On 9 Oct 2026 the implied denominator is approximately ₦165.60tn against a Main Board capitalisation of ₦93.95tn, and only ₦33.24tn of Main Board capitalisation carries a published P/E. The ₦165.60tn reconciles to the ₦161.26tn equity market capitalisation reported for 9 Oct plus the ₦3.70tn debt board and ₦0.64tn mutual fund board, so the NGX denominator spans every board, not equities only. The published figure is therefore a coverage limited weighted contribution, not a cap weighted market P/E, and is retained here only for continuity with prior issues. Its 0.82 point rise is concentrated in one line: Sterling Financial Holdings, whose published P/E moved to 258.0x from 25.8x after the 1 for 10 share reconstruction listed on 8 Oct, on an unchanged capitalisation of ₦527.47bn. That adds 0.74 points on its own. It is consistent with the ₦77.00 reconstructed price being set against earnings per share that have not been restated, not with a change in valuation. Equinox recomputes a covered Main Board cap weighted trailing P/E as total covered capitalisation divided by total covered earnings, where earnings are derived as capitalisation divided by the published P/E. † For 9 Oct, Sterling is carried at its 2 Oct P/E of 25.8x in the three Equinox figures marked †; on the P/E as printed they would be 29.85x, 18.99x and 21.63x. Coverage on 9 Oct 2026 is 78 of 125 Main Board lines, unchanged from 2 Oct; 27 of the 78 print above 100x on the adjusted basis, from 26, as Guinea Insurance moved to 121.8x from 94.3x. Sector figures are equal weighted trailing P/E across constituents reporting usable data, excluding any constituent above 100x. Banking covers 9 of 11 bank and bank holdco lines across the Main, Premium and Non-Interest boards, excluding Wema at 790.7x and Jaiz at 271.6x; the fall is led by First HoldCo at 61.7x from 64.4x and Fidelity at 17.9x from 20.1x. Consumer Goods covers 7 of 13 Main Board lines with a published P/E, the same count as on 2 Oct; the fall reflects Nestlé at 66.6x from 70.2x. Oil & Gas covers all 6 lines with a published P/E across the Main and Premium boards, the same six as on 2 Oct; the fall reflects Eterna's ▼9.09% weekly decline to ₦40.00, which lowers its P/E to 53.4x from 58.8x. Aradel carries no published P/E, so its ▼10.00% week does not enter the average. Market Dividend Yield is unchanged from 14 Aug 2026 and is flagged as carried forward, not a fresh observation.

Valuation Commentary

- Banks remain the lowest rated of the three sectors tracked on an equal weighted basis. The Banking average of 22.1x (nine lines, excluding P/Es above 100x) compares with 52.5x for Oil & Gas and 59.6x for Consumer Goods on the same method. Excluding First HoldCo at 61.7x the average is 17.1x, and GTCO (18.5x), Zenith (10.1x) and Access (10.5x) average 13.0x. Seplat at 75.2x and Nestlé at 66.6x leave little room for earnings disappointment after ▲185% and ▲40% YTD gains. On a capitalisation weighted basis the covered Main Board trades at 29.4x, or 19.1x excluding constituents above 100x; the sector averages are equal weighted, so the two sets are not directly comparable.
- Dangote Cement (1,696.1x) and MTN Nigeria (82,547.2x) print P/Es that reflect near zero trailing EPS in the NGX calculation and are not meaningful. Sterling prints 258.0x after its 1 for 10 reconstruction and is carried at 25.8x. BUA Foods and Airtel Africa have no published P/E.
- Foreign participation weakened again in August. Buying fell to ₦26.47bn against ₦35.56bn of selling, a net outflow of ₦9.09bn, and foreign share of turnover slipped to 4.89% from 5.60% as total transactions fell 46.38% to ₦1.27tn. The narrower net outflow reflects lighter selling (▼60.9%), not renewed buying (▼36.4%). Domestic institutions drove the slowdown, ▼60.39% to ₦654.61bn. The August figures predate the 21 Sep FTSE reclassification; September data will provide the first read on whether it changes the trend.

SECTION 9 | INVESTMENT THEME

THEME: Stock selection over sector exposure as breadth narrows

OBSERVATION	The NGX ASI fell ▼0.97% WoW to 248,363.55, a second consecutive weekly decline, with decliners outnumbering advancers 54 to 24 against 37 to 44 a week earlier. Industrial Goods was the only sector index to rise, by ▲0.02%, while Oil & Gas (▼3.85%) and Banking (▼2.64%) led the losses. The week's largest gainers were all priced below ₦15 and thinly traded: Livestock Feeds ▲47.75%, Tripple Gee ▲32.62% and Guinea Insurance ▲29.17%.
DRIVER	The price action is consistent with profit taking in the year's leaders; price and index data alone cannot distinguish this from changed fundamentals or portfolio rebalancing. Oil & Gas is still ▲124.92% YTD and Banking ▲72.50%; Aradel's single limit down session marked an estimated ₦0.66tn off the ₦1.58tn fall in market capitalisation, in a week when Brent rose ▲2.42%. Fixed income is also competing for liquidity: the CBN's 6 Oct OMO auction absorbed a net ₦1.14tn at stop rates near 17%, against an MPR cut to 23.00% in September.
IMPLICATION	Sector exposure alone did not pay last week, so positioning should rest on relative strength confirmed by breadth and turnover. Industrial Goods outperformed the ASI by 0.99pp, but on flat cement heavyweights and one mid cap, CAP (▲8.50%), so it needs a second week of confirmation. Banking's sell off left GTCO, Zenith and Access at an average 13.0x trailing earnings, with delayed H1 audited results from Access and Fidelity the pending catalysts. Insurance is the speculative tail: Guinea Insurance closed at ₦0.93, 36% below its ₦1.45 private placement price, after issued shares rose 57%.
RISK	A third week of negative breadth, or Oil & Gas losing the 6,000 level it closed just above (6,005.98), would point to a broader correction, not consolidation; the ASI sits only 2.2% below its 52 week high. Small cap gains can reverse quickly: Multi-Trex's ▲16.67% came in the week its trading suspension was lifted. September CPI above the 15.40% Cordros forecast would weaken the case for rotation out of 17% bills into equities; the NBS release date is not yet confirmed.

SECTION 10 | OUTLOOK — SECTORAL VIEWS & EVENTS TO WATCH

Sectoral Outlook — Coming Week

Sector	View	Conviction	Rationale
Banking	OW	M	Lowest rated sector on an equal weighted basis at 22.09x, or 17.14x excluding First HoldCo, against 52.47x for Oil & Gas and 59.64x for Consumer Goods, with Zenith's interim dividend raised 20% to ₦1.50, but Zenith's H1 PAT fell ▼19.1% on tax and Access and Fidelity audited results are still outstanding.
Consumer Goods	UW	M	Highest sector multiple at 59.64x with the weakest price record, ▲1.46% YTD and ▼0.58% WoW, after Nestlé fell ▼5.17% to ₦2,750 at 66.6x and with CPI at 15.39%.
Oil & Gas	N	M	Brent at $104.72 (▲2.42% WoW) is supportive, though company earnings also depend on volumes, costs and tax; the index fell ▼3.85% to 6,005.98 on Aradel's limit down session, is still ▲124.92% YTD and averages 52.47x.
Industrial Goods	N	L	The only sector index to rise, ▲0.02% WoW and ▲83.96% YTD, but on a flat Dangote Cement at ₦1,066.70 whose 1,696.1x print is unusable; Q3 board meetings on 29 Oct are the next test.
Insurance	UW	L	Index ▼1.74% WoW and the only sector negative YTD at ▼9.10%, with recapitalisation supply still landing: Guinea Insurance listed 6.31bn placement shares at ₦1.45 and closed at ₦0.93.
Telco (MTN/Airtel)	N	L	MTN Nigeria ended flat at ₦840.00 after touching ₦818.00 and Airtel Africa has not moved from ₦6,300.00 in seven weeks; Airtel Money eased to £1.93 against its £1.96 offer price ahead of admission on 14 Oct.

▲ BULLISH FACTORS

- External buffers at a record: gross reserves stood at $54.98bn on 6 Oct, the CBN governor put net reserves at $46bn against $34.80bn at end 2025, and the official naira held at ₦1,330.01, ▲8.05% YTD.
- Earnings and dividends at low multiples: Zenith reported H1 PBT of ₦637.60bn at 10.1x, and GTCO, Zenith and Access average 13.0x against 59.64x for Consumer Goods.
- Easing rates and returning liquidity: the 364 day Treasury bill cleared at 15.85% from 15.89%, average FGN bond yields fell 108bp in September to 15.9%, and Cordros expects ₦11tn of fixed income inflows in October.

▼ BEARISH RISKS

- Deteriorating breadth: decliners outnumbered advancers 54 to 24, only one sector index rose, and the ASI posted a second weekly decline (▼0.97%) while sitting 2.2% below its 52 week high.
- Liquidity diversion: the CBN's 6 Oct OMO auction absorbed a net ₦1.14tn at stop rates near 17%, and the ₦2.15tn Dangote Refinery offer closing 13 Oct equals about 14 times this week's ₦158.28bn turnover, a comparison of scale and not a measured outflow.
- Global rates and oil: the US 10Y closed at 5.25% after touching 5.35%, Brent held above $100 all week, KOSPI fell ▼5.39%, and the Fed meets on 27 to 28 Oct with a further hike expected this year.

Events to Watch — Next Week

Date	Event Type	Details & Why It Matters
13 Oct 2026	Dangote Refinery IPO closes (4.1bn shares at ₦525)	Subscription level and any upsizing decide how much liquidity returns to the secondary market before the November listing.
14 Oct 2026	US September CPI	A high print would lift Treasury yields from 5.25% and raise the bar for frontier inflows ahead of the 27 to 28 Oct Fed meeting.
Mid Oct 2026 (date to be confirmed)	NBS September CPI (Cordros forecast 15.40%)	A reading above August's 15.39% would end three months of disinflation and weaken the case for further easing at the 23 to 24 Nov MPC.
